Egret Aged Stone Table

The Egret Stool, a part of the Cast Stone collection, is skilfully crafted from faux stone for easy mobility while retaining the look and feel of cast stone. This multifunctional piece works beautifully as a footrest, extra seat, side table, plant stand—you get the idea—and the Natural Stone finish provides a versatile, neutral colorway that complements any setting. Recessed banding around the middle of the stool adds refined detailing. Natural Stonecast finish.
